ADDENDUM TO DD 1746 - APPLICATION FOR ASSIGNMENT TO HOUSING

DOMESTIC ANIMAL CONTROL POLICY

PROHIBITED DOG BREEDS

1. Pet ownership for those service members and their families residing in privatized family housing provides a real and tangible benefit, and contributes to Quality of Life for resident families. However, the rise in ownership of large dog breeds with a predisposition toward aggressive or dangerous behavior, coupled with the increased risk of tragic incidents involving these dogs, necessitates a uniform policy to provide for the health, safety and tranquility of all residents of family housing areas.
2. Pit Bulls, Rottweilers, canid/wolf hybrids, or any canine breed with dominant traits of aggression present an unreasonable risk to the health and safety of personnel in family housing areas. Effective 11 August 2009 full or mixed breeds of Pit Bulls, Rottweilers and canid/wolf hybrids are prohibited aboard Marine Corps installations. In the absence of formal breed identification a determination of "majority breed" will be made by a Veterinary Corps Officer (VCO) or a civilian veterinarian at the service member's expense.
3. Upon assignment to housing, all dogs and cats, of any age, must be registered within five days at the Provost Marshal Office, building 916, Department of Animal Control. Call 269-6303 to make a registration appointment. There is a maximum limit of two pets per household. Dogs are not permitted on the second floor apartments at 16th Street housing.

NEW APPLICANT BRIEFING ITEM

UNEXPECTED DANGER IN YOUR HOME?

Parents Beware: The Consumer Products Safety Commission (CPSC) has identified window coverings with cords as one of the top five hidden hazards in the home. About one child a month dies becoming entangled in a window blind cord. CPSC has recalled over five million window coverings: Roman shades, rollers and roll-up blinds, vertical and horizontal blinds.

Strangulation and entanglement injuries can occur in the home anywhere a window covering with a cord is installed. Children can wrap window covering cords around their necks or can pull cords that are not clearly visible but are accessible and become entangled in the loops. These incidents happen quickly and silently. To prevent tragedies CPSC recommends the use of cordless window coverings in all homes.

Pull cords, Looped Bead Chains or Nylon Cords, Inner Cords of Roman Shades and Lifting Loops of Roll-up Blinds are all safety hazards.

CPSC offers the following safety tips to prevent deaths and injuries associated with window covering cords:

- Examine all shades and blinds in the home. Use only cordless window coverings with no accessible cords in front, side or back of blinds. Repair or replace blinds, shades and draperies manufactured before 2001 that have pull cords ending in a loop that are the cause for risk of strangulation.
- Move all cribs, beds, toys or furniture away from windows and window cords because children can climb on them and gain access to the cords.
- Make cords inaccessible. Make sure tasseled pull cords are short and continuous-loop cords are permanently anchored to the floor or wall.
- If the window shade has looped bead chains or nylon cords, install tension devices to keep the cord taut.
- Lock cords into position whenever horizontal blinds or shades are lowered, including when they come to rest on a windowsill.

Consumers can receive a free repair kit from the Window Covering Safety Council's website at <http://www.windowcoverings.org> or by calling (800) 506-4636. You may also visit www.cpsc.gov to learn more about window covering safety.
