

MARINE CORPS PROCEDURES

FOR PROCESSING OF DISCRIMINATION/SEXUAL HARASSMENT COMPLAINTS FOR MILITARY PERSONNEL

MARINE CORPS POLICY STATEMENT

The Marine Corps will provide equal opportunity for all military members without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, age or national origin, consistent with the law, regulations and requirements for physical and mental abilities. The achievement and maintenance of this goal is integral to the full development of esprit de corps, pride and individual preparedness which are essential to combat readiness.

Your Rights

TO present any legitimate complaint to the command without fear of intimidation, reprisal or harassment.

TO be educated on the Marine Corps complaint and appeal procedures.

TO communicate with the commanding officer concerning your complaint.

TO military legal assistance in submitting formal complaints.

Your Responsibilities

TO advise the command of specifics of discrimination/sexual harassment complaints and to provide the command an opportunity to rectify, remedy or take appropriate action on the complaint before it is brought to the attention of higher authorities.

TO submit only legitimate complaints and to exercise caution against immature or reckless charges.

Commanders down to the battalion/squadron level shall designate, in writing, an equal opportunity program officer. This individual is knowledgeable of equal opportunity policies, sexual harassment prevention, and processing complaints.

The procedures that must be followed to present a complaint are divided into two categories, informal and formal.
